

Canadian national held on Pak-Afghan border

CHAMAN, May

25 (APP) : Afghan Border Security Guards on Sunday arrested a Canadian national on Pak-Afghan Chaman border when he entered illegally inside Afghanistan territory and they released him later in the afternoon, Chaman police at border told APP.

The Afghan

border security forces arrested Canadian national Mr David who crossed the border illegally after checking and finding his passport without Afghan visa. Later, he was released after investigation and handed over to Pakistani police authorities at the border. Then, police left him to move to the hotel in which he was staying in Chaman, police said.