

The most famous battle fought by Canadians in World War One was at a place called Vimy Ridge in France where a very large monument OWNED AND OPERATED by the federal government now exists. The 90th anniversary of this HISTORIC Canadian BATTLE will take place EARLY NEXT MONTH. WHEN Canadian troops fought 90 years ago in WORLD WAR ONE the Canadian flag was much different than it is today. It was called a Red Ensign and was primarily red with a British flag called the Union Jack in the left top corner. IN 1964 Canada's flag WAS CHANGED TO THE red Maple Leaf. Today, Canadian government protocol allows no other flag than the Maple Leaf to fly on the federal property monument but some groups are now asking the government to forgo that protocol and fly the Red Ensign, the flag that Canadian troops fought under in World War One, alongside the Maple Leaf AT the 90th anniversary of the battle of Vimy Ridge. Do you support or oppose the two flags flying together for this occasion?
