Refuting claims of the media that the Taliban has split from al-Qaa'idah

October 6, 2008

Posted by revolution in : Afghānistān, Jihād, News , trackback

In a desperate attempt to divide the ranks of the Mujaahideen, the Saudi Taaghoot with the backing of the British announced that there were successful talks that had already taken place during Ramadan in Makkah between the Taliban (11 delegates) and the Afghan Government for the purpose of ending the war. The media is already jumping on this news item calling it "historical." In addition, they are claiming that this Taliban delegate in Makkah has renounced al-Qaa'idah, finally separating themselves from the movement.

Alhamdulillah, the Taliban responded very quickly on their official site, destroying this news item and saying that they are not holding talks and that they will fight alongside Tandheem al-Qaa'idah. In addition, they said that the 11 so-called delegates were never sent with the permission of Mullah 'Umar or any high ranking authority in the Taliban Government; rather, they were ex-Taliban members that took it upon themselves to do this act of stupidity.

In the end, the Kuffaar and their media outlets have just embarrassed themselves to the point of no return. Didn't these Kuffaar think twice before reporting this? One brother said,

So when the world threatened to invade them and ruin their entire country if they didn't hand over a few men, they refused. And they paid the price, and they went through years of paying the price and still stood by their original word and even said they'd do it 100 times over...

But years down the line, when they are winning the war and kicking the invaders out, sending them packing, fleeing and whimpering with their tails between their legs and their heads held down in shame, they say "Alright fine, here's those guys you were askin' for!"

Did the Kuffaar quickly forget that the Taliban consider Saudi Arabia as an enemy Government and its leader as an Apostate?

Below is the translated statement from the Taliban:

Statement of Islamic Emirate of Afghanistan regarding the untrue news about peace talk

administration which is being sponsored by Saudi Arabia and supported by Britain, or that there are "unprecedented talks" involving a senior ex-Taliban member who is traveling between Kabul and the alleged bases of the Taliban senior leadership in Pakistan.

Afghanistan Islamic Emirate leadership council consider such baseless rumours as a failed attempt of the enemy to create mistrust and concerns among Afghans and other nations and Mujahideen.

No official member of the Taliban is currently or in the past have negotiated with the US or the puppet Afghan government. A few former officials of Taliban who are under house arrest or have surrendered do not represent the Islamic Emirate.

If, our fight was for ministries and other prominent positions in the puppet administration, then such negotiations would have made sense, but this is not the case; our struggle is to implement the rules of Allaah on Afghanistan by eradicating the enemies of Islam.

A dialogue which is in favour of Afghanistan and Islam will never be hidden from the nation. Our struggle will continue until the departure of all foreign troops.

Islamic Emirate of Afghanistan

Nice try O Enemies of Allah; but know that the honor belongs to Allah, His Messenger and the Believers.

Former ambassador of Taliban to Pakistan, Mull Abdul Salam Zaeef rejected the reports of talks between Taliban and Afghan government in Saudi Arabia

Former ambassador of Taliban to Pakistan, Mull Abdul Salam Zaeef , who recently visited Saudi Arabia also and said, "The Saudi Government had invited me, former foreign minister of Taliban Abdul Wakil Mutawakil and Mauliv Arsala Rahmani for performing Umrah."

He continued that a delegation of Afghan government led by former chief justice of Afghanistan Maulvi Abdul Hadi Shinwari was also in Saudi Arabia at that time to perform Umrah.

"We attended an Aftar dinner on the invitation of King Abdullah on 29th September which was also attended by delegates from several countries including the foreign minister of Oman," Zaeef told Afghan Islamic Press, adding that no discussion was held on the Afghan issue on this occasion.

He said that they did not represent Afghan government or Taliban.

"As per my information no talks were held between Taliban and government," the former detainee of Guantanamo said.

"Our tour was only aimed at performing Umrah and we did not represent any one. The meeting with King Abdullah was only restricted to Aftar dinner," Zaeef added.

On the 7th anniversary of US attack on Afghanistan, the former Taliban ambassador declared the US attack on Afghanistan as a "big mistake and cruelty" and said, "At that time, I was ambassador to Islamabad. We had not closed doors for talks. We repeatedly asked Americans to provide us proof of any Afghan and Osama Bin Laden's involvement in the 9/11 attacks so that we can take action against them. But the US could not and decided to attack."

He said Taliban had condemned the 9/11 attacks in US.

Asked what was the solution of the problem, Zaeef said, "I believe talks should be held without putting any condition by either sides. Putting condition by Afghan government for talks with Taliban is not right. The government's condition means to recognize the government which Taliban will not accept."

Withdrawal Of Invader Forces Is The Only Solution To Afghan Conflict

09-10-2008

In the Name of Allah, the Most Beneficent, the Most Merciful

All Praise and thanks are due to Allah, the Lord of all that exists and may peace and prayers be upon the Messenger of Allah, his family, companions in entirety.

Allah Almighty says: (Thou wilt not find any people who believe in Allah and the Last Day, loving those who oppose Allah and His Messenger, even though they were their fathers or their sons, or their brothers, or their kindred. For such He has written Faith in their hearts, and strengthened them with a spirit from Himself. And He will admit them to Gardens beneath which Rivers flow, to dwell therein (for ever). Allah will be well pleased with them, and they with Him. They are the Party of Allah. Truly it is the Party of Allah that will achieve Success.) (58/22)

The Americans, British and the United Nations are now raising a hue and cry that there is no military solution to the crisis in Afghanistan, that a peaceful solution should be sought and that face-to-face talks should be held with the Taliban. If they had thought about this seven years ago and had not resorted to the invasion of Afghanistan, not trampled upon the sanctity and dignity of Afghanistan, not martyred tens of thousands of innocent Afghans, not tormented thousands of Afghans under the pretext of fighting terrorism in dark prisons, then such talk would have been more appropriate with some chance of being listened to.

Seven years ago, the Islamic Emirate of Afghanistan did not fan the flames of war and fighting, it did not violate or infringe the national independence and territorial integrity of any country, and it did not resort to bullying and spreading terror in other countries and outside the borders of Afghanistan. On the contrary, it assured the world community of peace, stability and good behaviour. It was others who chose the path of bullying, force and aggression, who overthrew the ruling Islamic system on mere pretexts and uncorroborated evidence, who adopted the path of barbarism towards the officials and supporters of the Islamic Emirate, who tortured and killed thousands of Afghan people for their Islamic beliefs and religious devotion, and resorted to every crime and misdeed with the hope of crushing Islamic values and ideals.

MILNEWS.ca - Military News for Canadians

Allah Almighty says: { So do not become weak (against your enemy), nor be sad, and you will be superior (in victory) if you are indeed (true) believers. } (3/139)

In this period, we have also witnessed the unfairness and faulty judgment of the United Nations, which just stared at every crime and inadmissible deed by the Americans occupiers and the invading coalition, but did not show any mercy or compassion to the people and to the land of Afghanistan. The invader armies have showed no remorse for the mass murder of innocent civilians through sustained and indiscriminate bombing raids, nor any sympathy with the thousands of prisoners languishing in the cages of Bagram, Kandahar, and Guantanamo.

Now that the Islamic Emirate of Afghanistan is on the verge of victory in its continuing struggle in defence of the sanctities of Afghanistan, the international community in a series of artificial gestures and a hue and cry about talks is attempting to divert the attention of the Afghan Mujahideen nation. Regardless of these developments, it will be impossible for the invader armies to delay the progress of jihad and the Muslim Ummah in Afghanistan.

The Islamic Emirate wants to make it clear that the only solution and the most successful path for resolving the Afghanistan problem is for the foreign forces to leave Afghanistan unconditionally and to respect Afghanistan's national independence and Islamic faith. Surely it is only then that peace, stability and prosperity would return to Afghanistan, otherwise all hue and cry and slogans will be empty, fruitless and ineffective.

If the Americans, British, and at their behest the United Nations wish to keep the invading forces of 38 countries in Afghanistan, and at the same time ensure peace and reconciliation to their liking, they are dreaming an immature and empty fantasy.

Allah Almighty says : { Allâh has promised those among you who believe, and do righteous good deeds, that He will certainly grant them succession to (the present rulers) in the earth, as He granted it to those before them, and that He will grant them the authority to practice their religion, that which He has chosen for them (i.e. Islâm). And He will surely give them in exchange a safe security after their fear (provided) they (believers) worship Me and do not associate anything (in worship) with Me. But whoever disbelieved after this, they are the Fâsiqûn (rebellious, disobedient to Allâh) } (24/55)

America too arrogant to admit impossibility of winning in Afghanistan

October 9, 2008

Posted by revolution in : Afghanistan, News, United States of Losers, trackback

They know that it's impossible, but they cover it up by saying, "we need to hold talks." The Taliban already rejected talks and America knows that. The only reason why America is staying in Afghanistan is because they know for sure that when they leave, two things will happen:

1. The Islamic Emirate of Afghanistan (i.e., Taliban, al-Qaa'idah etc.) under the leader of Mullah 'Umar will bulldoze the whole of Afghanistan under their authority very quickly. The American Government, of course, is against the establishment of Shari'ah so this is what makes them bite their tongues; if the Taliban fought for a nationalistic cause - in which case the Shari'ah is not established - the situation would be absolutely different.
2. With the establishment of Shari'ah, its influence will spread like wildfire due to the beauty in its justice system, the serenity and religiosity in its environment, the efforts of da'wah by the du'aat, and the Jihad of the Mujahideen. This will naturally give a "safe haven" - as they call it - to the Mujahideen to launch attacks as well as wars around the world. By America leaving, it will destabilize the Apostate Regimes very quickly.

Strangely however, America still thinks - at least from what the media reports - that they can hold "talks" with the Taliban. They say talks must be ensured with the "moderate" Taliban leaders which technically means the ex-Taliban leaders such as Mullah Zaeef. This is perhaps an attempt to divide the ranks, not within the Jihad movement, but within the Afghan populace in order to create more future problems.

Getting back on to America's imminent defeat in Afghanistan, with Allah's help, the news media shows us statements here and there reflecting the mentality of the United States' loss in Afghanistan. U.S. Gen. John Craddock, NATO's supreme operational commander said:

"I have said over and over again this is not going to be won by military means."

At the same token, Defense Secretary Robert Gates said,

<http://milnews.ca> -- Pg 16 of 24

"That is one of the key long-term solutions in Afghanistan, just as it has been in Iraq. Part of the solution is reconciliation with people who are willing to work with the Afghan government going forward."

What the future holds, in our opinion - and Allah knows best, is that we see the United States remaining defiant in their Crusader war against the vanguard of Islam and this type of disease will lead them to be ultimately bone-crushed in Afghanistan, which will then eventually force Israel to take the lead of being the world superpower and become the flag bearers on the "war on terror" effort.

Those with eyes can and will see America's arrogance until it trips over itself and does to itself what the Soviet Empire did to itself.

Assalam U ALikum Akhi

i am very confused about this issue. recently as i came to know that Mullah Abdul Salam Zaief went to Saudia Arabia and had dinner followed by meeting with kind Abdullah, now as i have stated that these talks are not supported by Mullah Mohammed Umar. Then what are these talks actually?? ive also heard that according to these negotiation NATO will leave Afghanistan by giving govt back to taliban??

If they are so much near the defeat,these kuffars, then why on this spot peace talks??

another issue is about Pakistan. Pakistani Taliban are indipendant of Taliban of islamic state of Afghanitsn. But still some confusion about these two groups of Baitullah Mehsood and Mullah Fazlullah. As i heard that Baitullah Mehsood has asked US for some money?? to stop it all??

kindlyclarify this topic

May ALLah give u lot of Jaza

Walaikum Assalam,

1. Mullah Zaeef went to Saudi Arabia because the King invited him to hold "talks." Later on, the King of Saudi [deceivngly] announced that there were some "talks" between Karzai's Government and Taliban. The Taliban immediately rejected this because they no longer have anything to do with Mullah Zaeef.

2. It's important to remember that the Taliban have said repeatedly that they will never negotiate with the Kuffaar. They stick to their words.

3. As I briefly mentioned in my post, the Kuffaar want to use these "peace talks" as a way of covering their humiliating defeat so that it appears that they achieved something in the end.

4. From what I know, and Allah knows best, both Baitullah Mehsood and Maulana Fazlullah have given their bai'yah to Mullah 'Umar. Fazlullah is no different than Mehsud. Just like how you have in Afghanistan, Mullah 'Umar and Usaamah bin Laadin; both are excellent leaders, but Shaykh Usaamah gave bai'yah to Mullah 'Umar as he is the official recognized leader throughout Afghanistan (and the bordering Pakistani tribal areas).

5. It is not official that Mehsud asked the US for money; these are lies actually to distort his image.

"America too arrogant to admit impossibility of winning in Afghanistan"

(<http://revolution.muslimpad.com/2008/10/09/america-to-arrogant-to-admit-impossibility-of-winning-in-afghanistan/>)

Quote

They know that it's impossible, but they cover it up by saying, "we need to hold talks." The Taliban already rejected talks and America knows that. The only reason why America is staying in Afghanistan is because they know for sure that when they leave, two things will happen:

1. The Islamic Emirate of Afghanistan (i.e., Taliban, al-Qaa'idah etc.) under the leader of Mullah 'Umar will bulldoze the whole of Afghanistan under their authority very quickly .... (more on Ink)

Cell Phone, As A Tool For Ideological Struggle

A radical new plan is being considered by the UK government to counter growing Taliban public awareness campaign against the invaders in Afghanistan. The programme involves using new media like mobile phones and the internet to propagandise the ordinary Afghans to contradict the prevailing Taliban true message. Non-governmental organisations would distribute mobile phones to Afghans so they can make their own video diaries. Anti-Western films already circulate on Afghanistan's estimated 6 m mobiles. These films are also distributed among the country's half a million internet users. Whitehall officials say the aim is to deprive the Taliban of its virtual monopoly on educating Afghans about our evil plans using new media. BBC security correspondent Frank Gardner said there is a growing realisation in Whitehall and Washington that the US-led coalition has been losing the propaganda war in Afghanistan to the Taliban. The coalition's reputation was particularly damaged by the recent distribution of mobile phone footage showing the bodies of dozens of Afghan civilians martyred in a US-led raid in August, our correspondent added. They're willing to give poor Afghans mobile phones while there is still a food shortage over there. This isn't exactly the way to win the war of "hearts and minds."

An object lesson to ISAF in how to communicate a message that will resonate with the target audience. A fascinating address, articulate and inspiring, attributed to Taliban leader Mullah Omar on the occasion of Eid. The growing sense of confidence and the developing understanding of the international community and their difficulties in Afghanistan is tangible - he offers ISAF "safe passage" to withdraw....
